Atlanta Metropolitan State College

What is Title IX?

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits sex discrimination in educational programs and activities. "No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance." 20 U.S.C. § 1681 & 34 C.F.R. Part 106

- Sex discrimination encompasses all forms of sexual harassment, including verbal sexual harassment and sexual violence by employees, students, or third parties against employees, students, or third parties.
- Sexual harassment and sexual violence can threaten a student's physical and emotional well-being, and may impact how a student performs academically.
- Title IX compliance involves having a clear and functional reporting channel to the Title IX Coordinator and training the campus community about how to recognize sex discrimination and how to report it.

WHY should you file a report?

The College has a duty to promptly respond to all complaints of sexual harassment and sexual violence; whether on or off campus incidents. The purpose is to prevent sex discrimination on campus, promptly address reported incidents, limit the effects of harassment on the educational environment, and prevent its recurrence.

Retaliation against ANY participants in the process — accused, victim, witnesses, reporting individuals — is prohibited. Additionally, the College is strictly prohibited from any form of retaliation on the complainant and/or any participant involved in the process.

Sexual harassment is unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature that is sufficiently severe, persistent or pervasive that it unreasonably interferes with, denies, or limits someone's ability to participate in or benefit from a program or activity. Unwelcomed advances or inappropriate touching are examples of sexual harassment.

Sexual violence is defined as physical sexual acts perpetrated without consent or where a person is incapable of giving consent due to the use of drugs or alcohol. Sexual violence is defined in the Code of Student Conduct as non-consensual sexual contact and non-consensual sexual intercourse. Sexual assault and rape are examples of sexual violence.
